Quick facts about ACEC and the ACEC Life/Health Trust:

- The American Council of Engineering Companies (ACEC) is the oldest and largest of America's engineering associations.

- The ACEC Life/Health Trust was formed in 1965 to provide aggregate life and health benefit plans to ACEC members. That's almost 50 years of serving the unique health care needs of the engineering community.

- UnitedHealthcare, one of the most trusted and innovative names in health care coverage, began administering the ACEC Life/Health Trust in 2007.

- The Rowland Agency was established in 1977 to provide client centered service for the healthcare needs of employers and their employees. Daniel Rowland, Principal, Wharton School of Business is a Certified Employee Specialist, License # 0533013.

The American Council of Engineering Companies (ACEC), the ACEC Life/Health Insurance Trust and UnitedHealthcare Insurance Company are three separate legal operating entities and, as such, the organizations are governed and function independently. UnitedHealthcare's services are provided with the authorization of the ACEC Life/Health Trust. Questions related to health benefits offered through the Life/Health Trust should be directed to 1-800-573-0415. Must be UnitedHealthcare insurance license products; and HMO products do not apply.

ACEC membership qualification is determined by the association.

* The ACEC Life/Health Trust offers 35 medical plan design options for groups with 2-50 eligible employees; and it offers 85 medical plan design options for groups with 51 or more employees.

 ACEC members may receive potential savings on annual premiums, as compared to UnitedHealthcare insurance license products sold outside the ACEC Life/Health Trust.
